

January 17, 1933

Honorable S. A. Spear,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
Eleventh Legislature,
Capitol Building,
Phoenix, Arizona.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your oral request, I advise that it is my opinion that the rule of the House of Representatives prohibiting debate on third reading of bills does not violate Section 16, sub-division 2, Article 4 of the constitution - the house rules providing that protest shall be made in writing and filed with the clerk to be entered on the journal.

Very truly yours,

Attorney General
